Re: Resignation from Board of Education

Dear Mr. Austin:

By this letter, I hereby tender my resignation as Trustee of the West New York Board of Education, effective immediately.

Regrettably, personal and professional commitments have made it impossible for me to continue to serve effectively at this time, and after much consideration, I have come to this decision.

It was an honor to have been elected to the Board in the January 2014 election and to have had the opportunity to serve and become acquainted with some of the fine professionals who work in the school district. I extend my best wishes to all.

Very truly yours,
